WELCOME

21 October 2016

Christchurch Golf Club is delighted to welcome you to the 2016 Bledisloe Cup Challenge. The last time Christchurch hosted was 6 August 2010. The rugby test between the All Blacks and Wallabies was played at AMI Stadium where the game was watched from the new corporate facility, the Deans Stand, which had been built for the upcoming 2011 Rugby World Cup. The All Blacks won the game 20-10. However, the events of September 2010 and February 2011 dramatically changed the landscape of the city and no World Cup Rugby matches took place in Christchurch.

The clubhouse at Christchurch Golf Club suffered immense damage and for a long period the members were housed in the Eisenhower Room, an extension to the original clubhouse, that was completed in 1987. This much younger structure suffered very little damage and quickly became the hub of the club.

Construction of the new clubhouse started in December 2014 with the pouring of the concrete foundation and the facility was opened to members in January 2016. New changing facilities were also constructed as an addition to the existing Pro Shop and a covered walkway was formed to link the two buildings. The new clubhouse has extensive conference/function facilities and is being marketed as the Links Function and Events Centre and has proven popular already as a place for wedding receptions.

A special feature is the upstairs mezzanine floor where you will find the Sir Bob Charles Room. Sir Bob has kindly donated various golfing memorabilia, including clubs, trophies and a replica of the Open Championship Claret Jug which Sir Bob won in 1963. The room has areas dedicated to the Amateur, Professional and Senior career of Sir Bob. The construction and fit out of the room has been made possible by the generous donation of funds from the Mahar Trust.

This is the 20th playing of the Bledisloe Cup. We hope that you enjoy the challenge of playing the Shirley Links and embrace the camaraderie and friendship that this wonderful event offers.

Best wishes

Glenn Bongartz
Mens Club Captain
